

Visual Prolog Registration Information

From: VIPsupport (support@visual-prolog.com)

Thank you for your registration.

You will find your license below.

After installation, please, use the "Help | Enter license..." menu item in the Visual Prolog Development Environment to open the "Enter License Information" dialog.

Then copy the text (including "Begin License" and "End License") into the registration dialog, and press OK.

Please notice that the license conditions for the Personal Edition are strictly non-commercial.

If you intend to use Visual Prolog commercially you must purchase the Commercial Edition.

Visual Prolog Commercial Edition costs €299.
